“Build your own dreams, or someone else will hire you to build theirs.”
-Farrah Gray

When Lisa Rieves landed the lease on the 150-year-old house with the white picket fence, in the heart of historic Vinings, she knew exactly what she wanted to do with it. Entrepreneur at heart, this is her third storefront, and we think, by far, her best creation. “The Front Porch of Vinings” has quickly created a name for itself by offering a fresh, rustic luxe mix of home décor, furnishings and women’s accessories hand picked from across the U.S. “Your home should be a reflection of who you are, a space that brings you peace and tells your story.” This one of a kind shop takes shopping local and excellent customer service to a whole new level. From the minute the screen door slams shut you will feel right at home. Living only minutes from the shop, Vinings local, Lisa has carved out a niche that is all her own. Whether shopping for your home, yourself or picking up a gift we think you’ll be pleased with this little gem. Her front steps read “Every once in awhile...go where you can hear a screen door slam shut”, which is exactly what you’ll want to do when you visit this local favorite again and again.
